NUMB. 3018

MONDAY OCTOBER 31. 1743.

By the laſt arrived a Mail from France and another from Flanders.

Petersbourgh, October 15.

PRINCE Cantimir, her Imperial Majeſty's Miniſter at Paris, who was expected ſome time ago from thence, has received Orders to remain there, in order to the more effectually carrying on the Negotiations lately entred into with that Court. It looks as if this Correſpondence between the two Courts had been reſtor'd much earlier than we imagin'd, ſince it is a long time ago that Count Loenw—— had Leave to quit this Service, who is enter'd (after making a Tour to Dreſden) into that of France; and we are told, will be very ſoon promoted to the Rank of Marſhal. The M. de la Chetardie is expected with Impatience here. He was very agreeable to the whole Court, and ſeem'd to wiſh well to the Ruſſians as a People. At leaſt, this was what he mightily affected, and thereby gained the Hearts of their Nobility, and the univerſal Applauſe of the Nation. But what ſhew'd the Prudence of this Miniſter extremely, was his paying all his Compliments to the Ruſſian Lords openly, and without diſtinction, as is the Practice of the preſent Saxon Miniſter, who is particularly well received at Court. Field Marſhal Lacy is declared Governor-General of all the conquer'd Provinces, and General Romanzoff Governor of Swediſh, now Ruſſ Finland; that is, ſo much of that Grand Duchy as has been lately conquered, and yielded to the Czarina by the laſt Peace.

Stockholm, October 23. This Day his Royal Highneſs propoſes to make his publick Entrance into this City. His Arrival in Sweden has cauſed a very ſtrange Revolution in Principles; many who were abſolute Enemies to the Houſe of Holſtein, becoming ſuddenly its warm Partizans. What looks like a good Omen to his Highneſs, and his future Subjects, is the Arrival of Baron Van Swieten this Morning from Count Teſſin at Copenhagen, with the important News that the Fleet was laying up, the Army going into Winter Quarters, and, conſequently no fear of a Rupture, at leaſt for this Year. We continue ſtill to reaſon variouſly about the Daniſh Armament, which moſt of our Politicians believe was originally deſigned againſt another Power, and came to be turned againſt us by the Peace, and the Election. It is currently reported, that his Royal Highneſs inclines to marry the Princeſs of Heſs; and that this Affair will be ſpeedily laid before the Senate.

Genoa, October 19. Our Republick ſeems to be more embarraſs'd at preſent than ſhe has been for a Century paſt. According to the laſt Advices from our Miniſter at Franckfort, one Article in the late Treaty of Worms is, That his Sardinian Majeſty ſhall be put into the quiet Poſſeſſion of the Marquiſate of Final, upon repaying to us the Purchaſe-Money paid by the Republick to the late Emperor immediately after the Peace of Utrecht, when the Place was actually in the Hands of Savoy. All things are in greater Confuſion in Corſica than ever, and to augment our Difficulties, we have juſt received Account that the King of the two Sicilies is on the Point of puſhing Things to the utmoſt Extremity, in caſe we do not give him immediate Satisfaction for the late Affront offered him, by pulling down the Shops of his Subjects at the Gates of this City.

Turin, October 19. The Enemy having entirely reliſhed the Mountain of Agnel the 12th, his Majeſty, who did not, after that, think his own Preſence at the Army any longer neceſſary, ſet out from Chateau Dauphin the 13th, and arrived here, God be praiſed, the 17th following in perfect Health; having, before his Departure from thence, detached ſome Troops after the French and Spaniards, and given his Orders for the cantoning ſeveral Battalions, in ſuch a Manner that they may be brought together again, upon Occaſion, at a very ſhort Warning.

It would be difficult to give an exact Account of the Slain and Wounded, on the Enemy's Side, in the late Actions, becauſe they were extremely careful to conceal the Number of them. But one may fairly, and without any Exaggeration, compute them at about 1200. And we know for certain, that the greateſt Part of their Wounded are ſince dead; for as they tranſported them over the Mountain, in very ſevere Weather, a great many died on the Road, and were found ſcattered up and down by our Detachments. At the Village of Chanal we met with 20 of them in a dying Condition, and left naked by their own People; as likewiſe ſeveral Cheſts of Ammunition, and ſome Equipages. The Sight of thoſe poor Objects raiſed great Compaſſion, and his Majeſty ordered them to be immediately removed from thence, and the ſame Care to be taken of them as of his own Soldiers.

The Enemy has ſuffered extremely by Deſertion. Without reckoning about 2000 Men, whom they had loſt upon their leaving Savoy to march towards Briancon, it is computed, that, from their quitting that Place, to their repaſſing the Agnel, between 4 and 5000 have deſerted from them; and we hear, that they ſtill continue to do ſo as much as ever.

The whole Loſs on our Side conſiſts of 203 Men killed and wounded, including ſeven Officers killed, and two wounded; as has been exactly verified ſince the Actions. As to Deſertion, we have hardly had any at all; the whole Number we have loſt that Way, from the Time the Army was aſſembled to oppoſe the Enemy's Paſſage, not exceeding Thirty.

We have not as yet learnt, that the Spaniards and French, who, according to our laſt Advices, after repaſſing the Mountains of Agnel and St. Veran, re-united their Forces in the Valley of Queyras, have taken any Step ſince, by which their farther Intentions may be judged of with Certainty. But it ſeems probable, that the French will move into Provence, and the Spaniards return to Savoy; which muſt, however, ſoon be known, ſince they cannot ſubſiſt long where they are. The 16th Inſtant we had Letters of the 14th from Chateau Dauphin, by which we were inform'd, that our Parties, who followed the Enemy upon the Mountain, had taken ſome Priſoners, and amongſt them two Officers, as alſo near 500 Mules loaden with Baggage of different Kinds, and particularly the Decorations of the Infant's Chapel, and the Plate of the Lord Berwick, and ſome other Officers, without the Loſs of a Man on our Side, the Spaniſh Eſcorte having immediately fled.

An Officer who arrived the 17th from Chateau Dauphin, having been diſpatched by the Marquis d'Aix, brought an Account, that the ſame Parties, who were detach'd after the Enemy, had ſeized, upon the Summit of Mount Agnel, 12 Pieces of Cannon marked with the Arms of France, the leaſt of which are ſix Pounders; that there had been, upon that Occaſion, ſome Muskets fired between our Parties and the Miquelets, who at firſt made a Shew of intending to defend that Artillery, but that, upon the Approach of our Grenadiers, the Enemy was obliged to abandon it, after having firſt attempted to nail the Cannon, and throw them down the Mountain.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

Paris, November 6. 'The King has declared he will not 'give any Leave of Abſence, not even for a Week, to 'any of the General Officers appointed to command on 'the Frontiers.

'His Majeſty has ordered a new Regiment of Huſſars 'to be levied immediately.

'M. de Montejo, Ambaſſador from his Catholick Ma'jeſty to the Emperor, had an Audience of his Majeſty 'laſt Wedneſday at Fontainbleau, which laſted an Hour 'and a half; and as that Miniſter is to continue there 'till the Court returns to Verſailles, we are perſuaded 'his Excellency is perfectly acquainted with the Senti'ments of his Court, as to the preſent State of Affairs.

'M. the Count de Saxe is fallen ill at Strasbourgh.

'Marſhal Coigni, according to our laſt Advices, is 'better.

'We are aſſured, that a Congreſs will ſpeedily be held 'at Utrech, in order to bring about a Peace.

'The laſt Letters from Briſack, of the 28th of laſt 'Month, ſay, that M. Noailles had paid a Viſit to M. 'Coigni: that the Camp of the Enemy at Rhineweiller 'is daily ſtrengthned with freſh Reinforements, inſo'much that there is now in it 12,000 Men; that the 'other Camp they have below Strasbourgh ſtill remains; 'and, from the Diſpoſitions they are making there, 'it looks as if they intended to paſs the Winter in it. 'On the other Hand, our Troops are buſy in covering 'themſelves with Entrenchments; and no Leave of Ab'ſence is given to any of our Officers, even for the 'ſhorteſt Time. The Time Letters add, that their Pan'dours often attack'd our Workmen, but were as con'ſtantly repuls'd, with Loſs.

'They write from Vienna, that the Queen of Hun'gary had refuſed to receive the Pope's Nuncio, becauſe 'his Holineſs had refuſed to raiſe M. de Mellini to the 'Purple on her Recommendation; and that his Holineſs 'had refuſed his Letters to the new Archbiſhop of 'Milan.

'His Majeſty, by the Means of M. Stainville, has of'fer'd Count Guner, Chamberlain to her Hungarian Ma'jeſty, and Lieutenant-General in her Armies, his Sur'geons, in order to cure the Wounds he receiv'd at the 'Battle of Dettingen.'

The Haſtings has retaken the Maſter and nine of the Men in the Privateer, and cruiz'd five Days for the Ship, but imagines that Capt. The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handsomness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing like Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is very agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it, under various other Names, beware therefore of such Impositions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to all Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.
